INTRODUCTION

Psychology is the scientific study of mind, brain and behaviour. It involves understanding how psychology attempts to answer age-old questions asked by philosophy, religion and social studies by solving them using scientific methods. The world is rapidly changing, with sustainability issues to address and uncertainties to manage. Psychology contributes to the understanding of human attitudes and behaviour towards promoting sustainable solutions. This is studying and improving human performances, changing behaviours towards better quality of life, while combining knowledge with technological advancement for continuous problem solving within humanity. Skills in understanding people and changing behaviours to solve social problems are relevant in any industry in order to achieve and sustain success. Our BSc (Hons) Psychology will give you a thorough coverage of the core concepts in psychology to help you have a relevant role in society regardless of the type of career you pursue.

3 YEARS
PSYCHOLOGY PROGRAMME INTRODUCTION

We offer you a 3-year degree programme with an extensive combination of topics taught by research-active academics with international experiences.

Throughout the programme, you will be taught core concepts in psychology and how they are informed by scientific research, beginning from basic concepts in the first year, to a more in-depth look in the second year, and in the final year, you get to select special electives to focus on while carrying out an independent final-year research project. You will also be given an internship opportunity where you get to apply what you learn in a workplace setting.

You will be exposed to basic research methods and analyses in psychological investigations to equip you with lifelong learning skills essential for sustainable development. You will also learn the international communication methods of psychology (i.e. APA Style) to facilitate your presentation of ideas and scientific investigations.
